ARMY RULE

HAKARAK TRADITIONS

The Hakarak are clans, and administrations within the conglomerate known as the Rassa'Moxol. With such a strong martial culture, many have a variety of traditions which have lasted for millenia.

At the start of the Brawl Phase, select one Hakarak Tradition from the list below to be active in your army until the end of the phase.

While a Hakarak Tradition is active, each formation with this rule, are granted the relevant ability. Additionally, each ability can only be used once per game.

EGAE'KAI

To smite your enemy, you must first sustain against their assaults.

All INFANTRY troops improve their Defence Statistic by 1.

MURE'KAI

Precision is useful in a combat, to see and strike the right foe.

While at least half a formation are base-to-base with an enemy formation, they may add 1 to Hit rolls.

WORE'KAI

An enemy may be easily struck, but difficult to break. Force your weapon through their weakest points.

While at least half a formation are base-to-base with an enemy formation, they may add 1 to Wound rolls.

OWAE'KAI

To end a fight quickly, is to win a fight.

All INFANTRY melee weapons have the DEVASTATING ability.

SWAE'KAI

Enemies may be able to deflect a single attack. A flurry is often a traditional way to disable their defence.

All INFANTRY melee weapons have their Swiftiness increased by 1.

DOCTRINE RULES

If your Army is the Rassa'Moxol, you can use one of these Combined Regiment Doctrine rules.

HAKARAK OF JIAN'HA

Jian'Ha is perhaps the most open of the three major Hakarak's which control the details of day to day operations. Led by the Hali'Ctochs Warchief, in assistance of Maven Aklan, it sees to make use of every soldier if possible.

Improve the Armour Penetration statistic of melee weapons equipped by INFANTRY troops from your army by 1.

Whenever you make a melee attack with an INFANTRY formation while a Hakarak Tradition is active, a successful unmodified Hit roll of 5+ scores a Critical Hit.

ENHANCEMENTS

If your Army is using the Hakarak of Jian'Ha Doctrine Rule, you may use the following enchantments:

- Blade Champion - 15pts

To weave ones strikes to such an extent you are considered a champion is ones honour.

HALI'CTOCH CHARACTER only. Add 2 to the bearers Stamina Point statistic.

- Optical Centisight - 5pts

The near-magical items of the Cent'Irum are often used as the basis of our weapons. And this one allows us to nearly ignore cover.

CHARACTER only. The bearers formations ranged attacks have the IGNORES COVER ability.

- To Lay in Wait - 10pts

The nanolaminate lathes within each Auterium Calculator's weave are modified in order to pull energy from the Wreathe, to shield them, and their menials from an enemy assault.

CHARACTER only. All troops in the bearers formation have the Reserve Ability.

HAKARAK OF YAO'TEMIC

Yao'Temic is perhaps the most traditional and fanatical of the Rassa. Led by the Martial and heir of the Rassa's Warchief, they clad themselves in the skulls of their foes, and of other races, even those inside the Rassa.

The Relics of Our Honour

While an enemy formation is within Threat Range of a HALI'CTOCH formation, they cannot make a Retreat Move. They may instead only make a Desperate Retreat.

All HALI'CTOCH troops from your army have the Swiftiness statistic of their Melee weapons increased by 1.

ENHANCEMENTS

If your Army is using the Hakarak of Yao'Temic Doctrine Rule, you may use the following enchantments:

- Talisman of Ancient Honour - 25pts

A seemingly inert item. It was discovered to make even the most calm Hali'Ctoch a berserking beast in one on one combat.

HALI'CTOCH CHARACTER only. Improve the Swiftiness, Strength, and Damage statistic of melee weapons equipped by the bearer by 1.

- Honour the Dual - 25pts

Sometimes enemies are savage. In turn we must make sure they do not ignore our duals.

HALI'CTOCH CHARACTER only. While the bearers formation is within Threat Range of an enemy formation, any Ranged attacks made against either the bearer of the enemy formation have 1 subtracted from their Hit roll.

- Honour the Fallen - 10pts

To remember the fallen of battle, is to know true honour.

HALI'CTOCH CHARACTER only. When a friendly formation is destroyed within 6" of the bearer, gain 1MP.

HAKARAK OF TYRAN'FLES

Tyrant'Fles is a little known yet prominent Ruptorix Hakarak. Originating from the Brood of the planet Tyreenkhal, the greatest of all Ruptorix was born and raised here, consuming all other Chieftans on the planet until he grew so strong even the Mavens could not ignore him.

The Flesh I Hunger

All RUPTORIX troops have the Reinforced Health 5+ ability.

All RUPTORIX troops have 1 added to their Stamina Poinis.

ENHANCEMENTS

If your Army is using the Hakarak of Yao'Temic Doctrine Rule, you may use the following enchantments:

- Fierce Conquer - 25pts

I shall not let you win. The glory will be mine.

RUPTORIX CHARACTER only. At the start of the Brawl phase, until the end of the phase, add 2 to the Swiftiness statistic of melee weapons equipped by the bearers formation if they have no other friendly formations within 6".

- Horrifying Presence. - 15pts

Run... Little Demons.

RUPTORIX CHARACTER only. Add 2 to the bearer's Strategic-Use. Worsen enemy formation Heroism statistics by 1 within 6".

- Release the Brood - 35pts

My kin will consume the flesh from the bone.

RUPTORIX CHARACTER only. When the bearer is destroyed, you may immediately deploy a RUPTORIX formation from Reserves.
